

4A

MR. BENSON

"Now join the 'Order of the swallows!'" Mr. Benson is the Athletic Council Staff Representative, a terrific Social Studies teacher and a wonderful room teacher.

MICHAEL KACABA

"It's not me, it's the rest of the world." Mike came to us to put the finishing touches on his education Nutona style! He is active in Drama taking the lead in one of our plays. Mike is undecided about his future but he is interested in radio work.

ERIC MEAD

"Yes, I understand, but can't it be done my way?" One of "A" school's top men, Eric's main interests are curling and judo. A studious lad whose marks keep our class average up, Eric plans to become a Nuclear Physicist. He's sure to end up on top.

DEGEN LINDNER

"Her figure is lovely, she has lovely eyes. Her talk is a mixture of foolish and wise." Last year she was very active, this year her time is occupied by art and music. University is included in her plans; we wish her the best!

KURT SAWATZKY

"He thinks too much, such men are dangerous." Kurt has won several academic awards and has been on the honor roll every year. He is also interested in curling. With his ambition, success is assured in University.

JIM McINTOSH

"Most women have no character at all." Somehow we get the impression Jim doesn't like girls; however, we're all hoping he'll change his mind! He finds his interests in curling, judo and hunting. Jim plans to be a Nucleonics Specialist.

ADRIENNE APCHIN

"If at first you don't succeed—try, try again." Adrienne is more the quiet kind; a better friend is hard to find. She is one of our most distinguished cheerleaders and we're sure she'll go far in her chosen career.

JOHN PERVERSEFF

"Whenever I feel energetic I lie down till it passes." Johnny's laugh can be heard all the way down to the front of Algebra class. Johnny spends his time playing his guitar. His plans are to study law and we wish him luck.

HELEN BARAN

"She makes her fame in every game." As well as being a cute cheerleader, she is secretary for the Athletic Council, and is in all interform sports. She won academic crests in grades 9 and 10. She'll keep her pupils gay all day.

BEV BIRNIE

"A small package, but a peppy one, a ready laugh and a cheery one." Bev is on the Alumni Committee and is treasurer of Hi-Y, as well as being active in Hermes, N.C.Eye, and Hi-C. Bev's ambition is to be a teacher . . . Oh those lucky students.

LYNNE JANZEN

"Her blush is beautiful but sometimes inconvenient." A new addition to 4A, Lynne always seems to have an answer. She is in Hi-C and spends the rest of her time with music, and working in the Library. Her happy personality will take her far in Social Work.

EUGENE HOFF

"The Sphinx acquired fame and hasn't said a word in years." Eugene doesn't say much about himself but one thing we do know is that he plays hockey. He intends to go job seeking next year—good luck.

GLEN FRASER

"Work never hurt anyone, but I'm not taking any chances." Glen's main asset is his flashy black car. Glen has added to 4A's success. Although his future is undecided may success smile his way.

BARRY PEARSON

"Keep smiling, it makes people wonder what you've been up to." This boy succeeds in so many activities it's hard to realize he's only one person. Friendly, witty and dependable, is this year's class manager. Barry is destined to make his mark at University.

DALE BEAVIS

"Who is a necessary evil—more evil than necessary." Dale is on the football team, and he excels in trap shooting. He was class manager in grade 9 and on the honor role in 9 and 10. Dale's ambition is law.

JANE EATON

"A winning smile, a happy face, Jane came and found a place." Jane is from B.C. If personality could speak, Jane would be heard above everyone else. Her future is undecided, but with her vivacious nature, she'll make friends everywhere.
