

OLGA DUNSEITH

"Well, I'll be kicked," is Olga's song
Wherever anything goes wrong.
A lawyer she soon hopes to be,
These words may thus come true, you see.

GLADYS NELSON

Our Gladys is really quite clever, We'll forget her bright smile, ah no never!

But you'll open your eyes
When you sample her pies,
May she teach household science
forever.

RUSSELL CAMERON

He is troubled with attacks of spring fever. His aim is to overcome this malady and to make his exams
in June. Best luck, Russ!

WILLIAM O'SHAUGHNESSY

A quiet fellow, who keeps his philosophy to himself. His chief interest is in mathematics, especially analytic geometry, and Shakespearean literature.

MARGARET McLEOD

Fair-haired Margaret seeks a name
In the world of movie fame.

With plenty of pep,
She'll make them keep step,
And give them some points on the game.

MARIE ANDERSON

A sweet little maiden is she,
We call her petite belle Marie.

A high standing ever,
In debating she's clever,
She helped win the shield for IV. B.

MARJORIE TAYLOR

Somewhere on the golden prairies,
In solitudes haunted by fairies,
She'll dream for a spell
Of the wonders she'll tell
When she teaches the squaws to pick berries.

VERN DE GEER

Occupation—Conductor of the Paul Club.

Worry—Looking after the Rising Generation.

Ambition—To be a Grand Opera
director.

MELVILLE BALFOUR

Motto—"Better late than never."
Ambition—Civil engineer.
Favorite occupation—Impersonating his teacher.

JEAN SCOTT

Great problems of mental sphere
Jean will solve them all, that's clear.
Psychology,
Philosophy,
Now and then and there and where.

MARY BARKER

"Laugh and the world laughs with
you,
Weep and you weep alone."
So let Mary's smile all your sorrows
beguile,
And give up your tears without mean.

CLIFFORD COLE

He has attained an elevated position in his class.
Ambition—To become chief engineer of C.N.R.
Favorite song—"Put Me Amongst the Girls."

JAMES SKINNER

Our star track athlete. Jim had a perfectly "ripping" time at our sleighing party.

DAISY PALMER

There is a young lady named Daisy,
Who will never be thought of as lazy.
Her smile and her voice
Make my heart rejoice
Till I feel I am going quite crazy.

LOIS PAUL

Not saying—"No, I must go right home."

Pop-corn specialist. Her nearest neighbors certainly appreciate her.
Don't they, Eric?

GORDON GUEST

Another of IV. A's quiet ones. Gordon's chief study is chemistry. He may become a second Bacon. He aims to become a novel writer.
