

HARRY K. BROWN

We hear, "I'll beat the can off you,"
And up above comes to our view
A man so tall
That should he fall
A leg or arm you must renew.

ALICE WILSON

Alice is our pride and joy,
Especially when our math's annoy,
But if in French you ask a question
You'll rarely find her at attention.

ELSIE CANAVAN

Ambition—To grow up.
Favorite occupation—Winning elocution medals.
A vocalist in music.
A medalist in elocution.
An imperialist in oratory.

FRED WHITWORTH

Our Freddie enjoys frequent trips to the "Pan,"
Along with Sir Sidney and talkative
Dan.
If he could but omit
All his history and lit,
He'd be the Collegiate's happiest man.

RUSSELL POTTER

Our noble class president; also president of the Rugby Club. It is reported that he is attempting to corner the market in presidencies.

RACHEL LABATT

Just imagine, if you can,
Rachel turned into a man!
She wields a knife
To save a life,
And operates upon poor Dan.

MARION McLEAN

In the deep dark nooks of life,
Or in the whirl of human strife,
Hide where you will,
She'll find you still,
She'll be a detective or his wife.

RUSSELL NOVOKSHONOFF

Ambition—To become a school teacher.
Favorite recreation—Combing his hair.
Favorite occupation—Trying to borrow a "crib."

June

1921

LEONARD SCHNELL

There's a "regular guy" in IV. B.
Who is planning a preacher to be.
If he sticks close to that
As he does to the bat
His church will be crowded, you'll see.

HAROLD DRINKLE

Favorite occupation—Studying (E.)
Shakespeare.
Ambition—To live out his life insurance.
Hobby—Imitating the Scotch.

MARION WEBBER

Some of our girls are still dreaming
of a handsome soldier boy in khaki.
That was our Marion. Oh, boy! She sure is a stunner.

FLORENCE JACKSON

The best little sport in the class.
If you want support at basketball,
hockey or any other athletic competition, Flo will be there to help you,
you bet!

ROBERT KLOMBIES

Bob is a boy we can't make out,
He's never heard to sing or shout,
But in Algebra and Latin,
He'll not need surpassin',
For he's A1 without a doubt.

ELLIS McMILLAN

Pet saying—"Looka here!"
Ambition—To return to Regina.
Favorite occupation—Going over
town for mother.

FLORENCE CONWAY

Here you see a little scamp,
Nothing can ter spirits damp,
In math. classes she's just so and so.
But, you see, her name is Flo, Flo.

MARGARET VANT

Our future actress will probably represent IV. A on Broadway, or as a member of the Browning Society.
Keep up the good work, Margaret.
