

Clare Fowler—peace reigns when he is absent, for on story telling he is bent.

Laura Larmour—absent often but she still gets

Charles Tripard—our substitute for Paderewski. How he can play.

Shirley Thomson—vivacious and active with voice sublime.

Lillian Wimmer—she's the champion tennis player of A school, and our Air Force representative.

Lorna Marshall—ever so capable and Laura's bosom pal.

Eleanor Thomson—life is good and so is she at skating.

Shirley Hinnet—the girl with red hair and really swell!

Connie Rintoul—pretty petite arch enemy of Mr. Bonney.

Merle Price—so demure and reserved. But to A school she has served.

Don A. Thomson—it's a bird, it's a plane, it's Don and his car.

Melba Anderson—she's new in our room but she has already proved a favorite.

Etta Millar—friendly and always willing to lend a hand.

Dorothy Berrington—she likes a boy with navy blue eyes.

Wayne Holmes—4A's representative in the sports section, basketball and rugby.

Malvin Mitchell—our "head man" What on earth scared him?

Johanna Miller—her serious manner hides her sparkling eyes.
