

Marian McLeod—Cheerful editor of the Hermes staff interested in Dramatics, oratory, and everything else in sight.

Mr. F. Wilson—4C's class teacher.

Barbara Makaroff—Hermes chief photographer, bubbling over with personality, vim, vigor, and gay vitality.

Kay Best—Quietest member of 4C, ambitious to be a nurse.

Gordon Anderson—a chip off the old molecule with a mania for math., also a good orator.

Albert Beazely—comes and goes without quite knowing why. Helped to keep the Hermes accounts straight.

Gordon Cram—a star in intermediate track—he has a happy smile.

Jim Cumming—the man who must eat dictionaries. He's secretary of Lit council and responsible for some of those dance decorations.

George Lazaruk—starry lineman of our college twelve, room basketball star.

Edith May—she's a George's blond. Her ambition is to catch onto a joke the first time she hears it.

Helen Moffat—quiet, studious and friendly. This one girl who can miss school and still get A's.

Mary Munn—4C's beauty all in one, president of the Dramatic Club, and a star actress.

Gordon MacGregor—very quiet but ready, willing and able to co-operate.

Jack MacKay—class president, Hermes photographer, president of Beta Kappa, a tall dark member of senior basketball squad.

Don McLeod—tall, blond, quiet, a gentleman in leisure.

Aldis Peterson—senior pin, senior basketball, senior swimmer, senior track, senior watch—she's got all the senior stuff.

Lillian Pouss—a blushing blond, with a lovely smile.

Jack Pulley—class cut-up, if there is trouble always in it.