

Ethel Bembridge—a maiden fair going through life with never a care, a song on her lips, a pen in her hand, Dorothy ever of an N.C.I. brand.

Walter Weind—a true blue sport, a jolly fellow, his voice so deep, his heart so mellow. Few so fair and square as he, we wish him luck most heartily.

Dot Ledford—Of pep and zest she has her share, if there's any fun she'll be there. When it comes to work it's just the same, an all round sport we all proclaim.

Jim Brennan—industry is his password, study habits he will stress, in sports he's tops, in anything. Who? can't you guess.

Lucille Bigley—a happy lass we find Lucille, we like her quick bright smile, a life of carefree jollity is Lucille's particular style.

Borge Sorenson—a quiet sober sensible sort, scan his notebooks, nothing short. Assignments done to perfection, one of 4D's studious section.

Margaret Prince—her work is always up to par, Margaret is our basketball star, she always finds something to do, her literary activities—debating too.

Elfride Schuller—Elfride with her gentle voice, ever steady, never cross, does her work with greatest care, her personality is so rare.

Annie Kondra—Of character determined. That word describes her true, anything that she begins she'll surely see it through.

Margaret Millar—she takes time to work and reaps success, time to be friendly thus—happiness, takes time to laugh, music of the soul, here's to Margaret who'll not miss her goal.

Helen Findlay—Though small of stature, her smile is sweet, Helen's I.Q. can't be beat.

Stanley Tutkaluk—a quiet lad is Stanley with the eyes of blue and sunny hair, when it comes to sports or studies you'll always find him there

Anne Bellamy—here comes our modest Ann. Dark hair, brown eyes, a dating fan, always a smile for the 4D class. You'll like this Room 9 lass.

Mert Zapfe—our joking, happy-go-lucky rugby player.
