

Fred Wake—Usually found asleep in some obscure corner

Irene Sheehan—an aspiring orator and singer with lovely eyes and smile.

Don Wright—short, tubby, an avid reader and an honor student.

Gretta Schwartz—Shapely blond basketball star and president of Athletics.

Marshall Sharp—boy with sharp wit, ready repartee and a Bing Crosby voice.

Harold O'Dell—studious Hank but he's lots of fun.

Bob England—what he knows about school, isn't worth knowing.

Conrad Fitz-Gerald—our star athlete in every sport and a likeable fellow.

John George—one boy who never loses his temper, always has a joke to tell.

Beryl Haver—bubbling over with enthusiasm.

Lorna Withers—a good sport, quiet and likeable.

Willard Stewart—an honor student and liked very much by all.

Bud Maggs—returned from B school (in body that is).

Bessie Billings—A constant jaw-wagger in 4C, otherwise quiet.

Bud Carson—senior watch and hero in the sports world, 4C candidate for all around popularity.

Pearl Anderson—5' 9" of sunshine, tall, dark and full of energy. Pearl is a newcomer from "B" school.

Clarence Kennedy—one learns by asking questions. Will he? Now has left for the Air Force.

Bill Winterton—basketball coach, extraordinary and very popular with all.
