

4B

RALPH EDMUNDS—He was so good last year, they held him over for another 10 month run.

BETTY GRIFFITHS—A letter a day keeps the Navy blues away.

ELMER CRONK—A lodge member and collector of name orchestras.

ROD THOMSON—Studious, and a nice fellow.

MARY VAREY—Star at basketball, capable Hermes news editor.

GORDON HERCUS—Interests seem to "varey" a good deal.

RUSS MARSHALL—He was a boy soprano. Even now he's a pretty fair bath-tub-blues singer.

MARY BLACK—A curling fiend, with a sympathetic ear for anyone's story.

BOB BOAK—Big boy from Bruno, who bats out better than "B's".

CLEMENCE ROLES—A deep-thinking fellow, good for a class that laughs too much.

HAZEL BECKMAN—A blond beauty who has a boy-friend in the navy.

BRUCE MAHONEY—Alberta girls must have something and we don't mean brothers.

BOB TEED—Studious, but a wit.

VERVA WRIGHT—She is so good-natured she doesn't make Hercus move till bell-time.

DON BERGIN—Everybody's friend, nobody's fool.

BOB THOMPSON—A 4B partial, and a natural born card.

ALVIN WITTMANN—A man of wit, in fact Mr. Wilson's right hand.

SID MCCOY—Likes the brighter side. Something tells us he doesn't like school.

MIRIAM RONNING—A welcome, friendly new-comer to our class.

DOUG SMITH—"Holler," and he's sure to come.

IRIS SIMMONDS—Poetess, who makes extensive words rhyme.
