

- 4A -

MR. HARVEY—Mr. Harvey, our beloved room teacher, whose favorite saying is: "My, isn't this 4A of mine a wonderful class!" He has maintained a real interest in each one of us during the four years we have been with him.

LESLEY FALLOON—Les is a brown-eyed favorite of 4A who hails from Foxwarren, Man. Les has great talent as a trumpeter and skill as a curler.

KEN EASTON—Better known as "Tex." Ken, besides being secretary of 4A, is prominent in rugby, hockey, and class basketball. His jovial personality and humorous tongue make him popular.

DOT GEORGE—Dot is the tall, blonde president of the Dramatic Club, and the captain of Senior Girls' Basketball team. She is well known and liked around our Hallowed Halls.

JACK DEVINE—One of the latest additions to the roll call of 4A's is Jack, a man with a wit as bright as his hair. He has done much to boost our class in the academic field.

JO GREENWOOD—Jo, a former "C" school student, is now an ardent booster of 4A. With her mischievous eyes, her ready laugh, and her sparkling personality, "little Jo" is a favorite with all of us.

MARSHALL MacKENZIE—"Mac", our handsome man-about-town, is "A" school's leader. Mac's many interests bring him lots of fun whether in class or in the field of sports.

JOAN MORRISON—Joan is our very petite and trim miss. She is our Hermes representative and also is on the 4A committee who made our last class party such a grand success.

MATT BALDWIN—The witty and inquisitive member of our class is Matt. He's curling president as well as being a star on the rugby and hockey teams.

MARION MURPHY—Marion is a wonderful acquisition from "C" school. Marion directed the play which is being entered in the Drama Festival, has the lead in the operetta, besides a multitude of other interests.

WILF EVANS—We don't hear much from Wilf, but "silence is a virtue," they say. (Nickname censored) was doing very well as skip of an enterprising curling team.

BETTY TOMS—Betty's our B.C. enthusiast and whole-hearted supporter of all sports. Thanks to her the standard of our class is high academically.

BILL WHITE—Bill has teamed with Cy Rouse to make Nutana basketball history, to say nothing of his exploits in rugby, baseball and track.

KAY HALYK—Kay is a little girl with smiling brown eyes who is a newcomer to the class also. Nevertheless her cheery disposition has won her many friends.

JOHN HOLTET—John is an extremely studious chap, who besides achieving great success academically, has an important place in the field of sport, along the curling and softball lines.

GWEN HUNTER—Gwen is our cute redhead who is always talking and laughing, thus adding to the general merriment of 4A. Her ambition is to be a nurse.

DOREEN ARRAND—A real live-wire. Her usually gruesome but exciting stories told in an appealing manner are very much appreciated by our class.

EVELYN PHILIP—Evelyn came to us from Unity last year. We hear that art is one of your specialties, Evelyn—keep it up for without a doubt your endeavours will bring you success.
