

- 4D -

MR. DEWAR—Musician, instructor, good fellow is he, With a smile for a joke and an ear for a plea.

GLADYS ADAMS—Whenever you see her, she greets you with a smile; She brightens up the classroom And makes our lives worthwhile.

BOB LOCKE—Bob stars at hockey but doesn't manage to glimmer in Trig. Bob is easily recognized by his blonde curly hair.

JEAN WILSON—A smile, a laugh but never a frown With plenty of sense she won't let us down.

BILL TOWILL—Bill is a well known figure around the school. He is lab assistant and the fourth year representative on the Literary Council. Bill wishes to don the uniform of blue.

LEONA TOMLENOVICH—Leona is a very studious member of 4D, hoping to reach objective of being a nurse.

GEORGE STEINBRING—Our six foot two George is the handsome boy of the class. Despite his quiet reserve, George has not gone unnoticed. He excels particularly in composition, but is an all round good student.

ALICE LEVCHENKO—Musically minded and game for fun is our Alice. She feels work that must be done will be done.

ROY ASHDOWN—Although Roy's chief interest around school is rugby, he has the ultimate ambition of being in the Air Force. He also attempts to keep up the class morale.

GLADYS JACKSON—4D's capable secretary greets us in the form of Gladys. In addition to leading the way in selling war stamps, she also skips a rink of curlers

VERN ROSE—Vern's chief interest in school is debating and arguing.

ELEANOR THOKLE—Eleanor is our fair haired chum. Whether it be for work or fun Eleanor is always on the job.

DAVE ROBERTS—What has school taught me but to become a dreamer? Dave hails from Fort San and hopes to become a doctor after a naval career.

ROY POUSS—Ambitious, quiet, fair, shy and tall depict Roy. He is a curling enthusiast who is a top notch favorite with us all.

DOROTHY BERG—4D boasts an artist in the person of Dorothy. Her talents in this field should prove valuable in future years.

TOM HNATIUK—Tom just loves doing assignments. He is one of the more witty members of 4D, and he always has a wisecrack on the tip of his tongue.

BERNARD HELGASON—Bright and cheery all the while Bernie has a friendly smile.

JEAN OSBORNE—Jean is the kind of girl who finds enjoyment in everything done or said. With a little luck Jean should find her place in life very easily.

KEN BYFORD—Ken is a tall, slim, dark studious fellow with a quiet manner in class.