

4A

MR. REYNOLDS—Being Commanding Officer of the Air Cadets hasn't soured his pleasant disposition. Favorite alibi—"Last year's rules."

MARY EVANS— Our Senior Pin is an athlete, scholar and fine personality all wrapped into one swell kid.

Bill Quance—Hermes room rep., member of room executive. Hobby—photography. (Wonder where he gets the films?)

MARJORIE GRIGGS—Quiet, but definitely an asset to our class. She comes from Yorkshire and we hope she'll stay with us for a while.

STAN BLACKWELL—We don't hear much from Stan, But "Silence is a virtue". An ardent soccer fan.

SONIA ONISHENKO—Sonia is the 4th year rep. of Pauline Club, and member of N.N.S. correspondence committee. A little girl with a big personality.

ROSS WHEATON—Small but mighty, star goalie on soccer team, a flight sergeant and an all-round good sport.

FLORENCE McCALLUM—Member of dramatic club, Pauline Club, N.N.S. Likes dancing, bowling and fun in general.

LLOYD RODWELL—Lloyd is a splendid musician. We wish the best of luck to him now and in the years to come.

BESSIE NEWTON—Loves fun, and has a mischievous manner which is enjoyed by all of us.

CHRIS McOUSTRA—A sea cadet, chief petty officer and dramatic club enthusiast.

MARILOU HARRINGTON—Appreciates good music (Artie Shaw in particular), likes dancing, skating and basketball. Ambition—to be an artist.

LLOYD WATTS—Lloyd hails from Calgary and is rapidly becoming an "ace" joke-teller.

MARILYN DAVIS—Our competent Hermes Sales manager. Shines in "vice-presidencies." Very active in basketball, softball and tennis. Woolhouse Trophy winner.

MARCEL OSTAFIE—New dark-haired member of 4A. He comes from Kenora—it says so on his sweater.

PAT LAMBERT—4A's candy-cane. She's cute and sweet, and 4A wouldn't be 4A without her.

BETTY MCGREGOR—Goes her own way, oblivious to worry. Her interests tower on a diving board.

JOAN SMITH—A tall, quiet newcomer to our class whose hobby is drawing. Ambition—stenographer.
