

George Kobelak—occupies himself with curling and getting good marks. No one knows where he came from or where he is going.

Mr. Campbell—4A's tolerant room teacher who has managed to keep smiling through four years of low marks, noisy students and guided missiles. To Mr. Campbell we say thank you!

Bob Hagan—Takes everything easy. Bob's good at all sports. He is seldom seen around last period. Ambition? What's that?

Lynette Lewis—A member of the Pauline club, Lynette is always full of fun and laughter. Thinks she will just retire after June.

Bruce Rawson—"Bart" says he is the best linesman in football today. An all round good guy, he plans attending Kindergarten after school.

Shirley McDonnell—Capable Social Editor of the Hermes. Uncertain about future plans but would like to take a trip around the world. (Should be fun!!!)

Wallace Kelly—Wallace is so busy hunting and fishing, school work seems to be a bother. Farming is ahead for him.

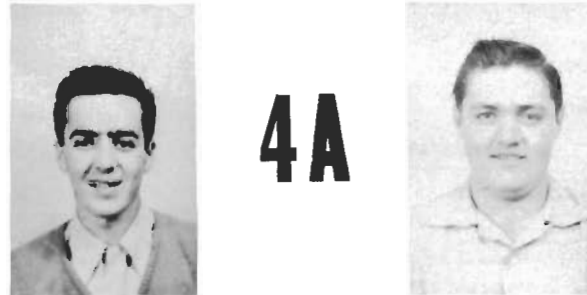

Eileen Clarke—Eileen came to us from Star City and has been a definite asset to our class: With her humor and wit she'll be a success at whatever she does.

Ivan Eyre—Very active in basketball and rugby. Ivan intends to go to Winnipeg to take an art course. Good luck!

Beverly Billyard—Always has a friendly smile for everyone. Bev wants to be a nurse and look after the doctors (or is it their sons)

Jack Caron—"Coach put me in!" Jack plays for the Wesleys and is active in all sports. Future? Work!

Phyllis Harbus—4A is going to be well represented in the nursing profession. Phyllis has that up her sleeve too. She'll study anatomy and not out of books.

Gordon Hall—Cars, hunting, curling and certain girl seem to keep Gord occupied but he still manages to "Hall" (pun) off some high marks.

Lecia Sturby—Lecia just came to us this year and has filled in very well. She hasn't told us her plans but we know they'll be great.

Terry Labach—One of the few boys who came to school to learn. He is also athletically inclined (basketball, baseball, track).

Leo Lubin—Comes to school now and then. Leo has been leading man in many Nutana plays. In fact he is always a leading man. (Aw don't mention it.)

Edwin Kotelmach—4A's busy little room secretary. "Big Ed" is always in a good mood. We will match him with Mr. Murder Mills any time.
