

Jim Stothers—

Jim tees of on the greenest of grass,
He's also the president of our class.
Jim plays basketball for the Pandas. He has brains and ability but no one knows who stole his ambition.

Ray Robins—

Ray is a good friend for you,
This has been tried and found to be true.
Ray plays on all our room teams as well as being a member of the "Y-Nots."

Mary Hinde—

Mary is always as busy as a bee,
Doing nice things for you and for me.
Mary won the best actress award this year for her outstanding performance in "Ici on parle Francaise."
She will make an excellent teacher as she is conscientious and very interested in this field.

Doug Sagi—

Doug is good at criticism,
He'll go far in journalism.
We'll be reading his articles some day. Doug has been active in drama, debating and in production of the N.C. Eye.

Bob McKague—

His plans for the future he won't confess,
Whatever Bus tries he'll make a success.
"Bus" is truly a likeable guy. Roars of laughter always spray from the corner where "Bus" sits.

Marnie Patrick—

In drama, Marnie is a star,
As a songstress or actress she'll go far.
Type E Arts will profit by having Marnie with them
next year.

Victor Walls —

For Vic, the future's very clear,
For he will be an Engineer.
Vic likes sports and gets good marks. His nicknames have grown up with him—"Baldy," "Zeke," and "Curly."

Arlene Jackson—

Arlene curls and plays the piano,
She's also good at track.
She has a love for hockey games,
This of course is "Jack".

Boyd Kruger—

Boyd is one of the quieter boys in our room,
But on the ivories he can really zoom.
He's interested in motor mechanics, and is sure to make valuable accomplishments in his future vocation.

Gloria Rhoden—

Gloria is an expert at the piano,
When she's near—boom—bang—oh!
She plans to take a year out to get her A.R.C.T.
And then she may go in training for a nurse. She's the pianist for the boys' and girls' choruses, sings in the church choir, and is still a very superior student.

Garth Toombs—

When asked what he was going to do,
Garth shrugged and said "Not a clue,"
Garth is the very capable editor of the N.C. Eye.
Maybe you'll try journalism, eh Garth?

Marie Clark—

Marie's very athletic—always cheerful,
When she's near, what an earful.
Penguinettes, Senior Basketball, Leader Corps and swimming keep Marie busy. Her future is as yet undecided.

Joan Williams—

Joan is our athletic gal,
She is everybody's pal.
Joan swims, plays tennis and basketball.
Her plans for the future are undecided.

Sheila Blouin—

As a Lab Tech, Sheila will do well,
She's lively, friendly and really swell.
Sheila is one of the two redheads in our class;
We wish we had more of them.

Joyce Bayston—

Joyce is earnest and energetic,
Maybe someday she'll meet a nice medic.
Joyce is going into nursing, and with her personality and ability should make an ideal one. The Batz and Senior Girls' Basketball team boast of her athletic prowess.
