

Ken Harris

His future aim is to be a veterinarian. Noted for his witty remarks. His favorite pastime — reading Pogo. His favorite class — detention.

Glenna Hogg

"What is life without love?" She'll grace a kitchen soon, we think.

Jean Lawson

Four years ago a nurse to be,
Today she starts her dream career.

Terrace Holben

Of Chemistry I know some more, of H₂O and SO₄,
But will I ever, ever know, Osmis, which way you flow?

Mary-Lou Lawson

A merry laugh, a winning smile,
A little wit makes her worthwhile.
She'll use it in the hospital halls.

Quinton Johnson

This lad is a wise one — he stays clear of girls. Is the proud possessor of a green Prefect and hopes to become a teacher.

Eula Sealy

Hair of black eyes of brown. Future—you can say, but marriage doesn't sound bad.

Don Kerr

He's one swell guy and well liked by all. Excels in curling, bowling, and getting good marks. Future — Varsity engineering.

Bob Snyder

Edmonton's loss, Nutana's gain. A quiet guy but liked by all.

Ruby Wakabayashi

Ruby is a dark little lass, who certainly does well in our class. Chosen our Senior Pin, for '54. In everything she's hard to beat.

Jack McKenzie

Helped the Blues on to another city championship.
Was chosen the Blues' most valuable player.

David Rivett

"A little innocence is a dangerous thing." David spends his spare time shooting.

Pam Bourne

4B gazed and how its wonder grew
That one small head could carry all she knew.

John Kleiner

The great pleasure of life is doing what people say you can not do. Best of luck in the future, John.

Bob Kettle

I find it hard to keep my mind on any one subject you can find. Pastime — is a defenseman on the Wesleys'.

Bob Moore

Seen at school from 8:30 till 3:30. From there on his extra time is private.

Walter Bradowski

A new face is seen about 4B. Walter hails from Austria. We hope he likes his newly adopted country.
