

TERRY LITTLE

Tall, dark, and blind; Squint says he's returning next year but we know we'll find him at Varsity. Good luck Terry to you from us.

CAROLLE PATTERSON

A skating champion is this lass. We're proud to have her in our class. Undecided about what she'll be, Although she'll go to Varsity.

ALLAN ZYLICH

To pharmacy this guy is bound, And all the girls he's sure to spin round, Good luck, Allan, where you go, We're sure your progress won't be slow.

CAROLYN PATTIE

Rather quiet but never glum, Through four years with us she's come. Nursing is her chosen career. For her success we have no fear.

FRANK McCALLION

Frank came to 4A to tell us all about the Air Force. Frank's main ambition seems to be in the Air Force. His future will be in Law or "Soldier of Fortune".

EUGENE WEDEL

Eugene would like to go to Varsity next year. He is interested in art but before that comes high jumping. Eugene is a credit to Nutana. We wish him all the luck in the world.

GRANT STRACHAN

Grant doesn't say much about himself but one thing we know for sure; he's a great guy to know. Grant would like to become a jet pilot and with his initiative, success is assured.

LINDA THIERMAN

Our N.C. Eye editor is right on the beam. She helps to make 4A a team. With a friendly smile and a happy grin, At Varsity this redhead is sure to win.

DEAN BURLINGHAM

Dean came from Maidstone this year — a welcome addition to our class. Dean says his aim in life is to own a skyscraper with a harem on each floor. Dean plans taking commerce at Varsity.

JUERGEN DOERR

"Jug" doesn't say much during class; he's probably thinking of how nice it will be studying Arts and Science next year. Good luck Juergen, we know you will make a huge success of things.

JOE SPARKS

Wherever he goes he has a charm that has captivated everyone for life. Swimming and the Y are Joe's main interests, next year Agriculture at the University will be another. Best of luck Joe.

PAT LEESON

Cute, blonde and full of vitality, This kid sparkles with personality. University is included in her plans. We wish her the best, we're all her fans.

TOM INGLIS

An expert at the art of mixing school work with fun — in school. Our class without Tom is like the sputnik without the mutt. Tom will enter pre-med. next year and has our best wishes.

JUDY ZORATTI

Dark-haired, cute and full of fun, Judy has personality by the ton. She doesn't know where her future lies! But we know her decision will be wise.

GARY MITCHELL

"Unaccustomed as I am to talking about myself Gary adds the spice of life to 4A and quite frequently is Mr. Benson's pet peeve. Gary's life occupation will be in the field of commerce.

HEYWOOD MacDONNELL

He has a big grin though he's not very tall. A Theological student he'll be this fall. For his success we have no fear. Good Luck, Heywood, for many a year.

EILEEN GARVIE

Good at sports and full of fun, Eileen's a friend to everyone. Varsity seems to be her aim. Where we know she'll make her fame.

VICTOR HNATYSHYN

The budding comedian of 4A Vic tries (and succeeds) in keeping us content all day. An ace at basketball Vic intends to study Law at the U. of S. and play for the Huskies.
