

THE HERMES Class 4C

CLIFF ULRICH
R. R. 10's contribution to 4C.
A quiet lad but lots of fun.
Future plans are not knowo,
but
He will make out splendidly.

DARLENE LOW
Bright eyes, bright smile,
You'd think you could see hes
for a mile.
But t'aint so, as you'll soon
see.
'Cause Business College is where she'll be.

DONNA SCOTT
Donna is quite uncertain as yet,
To varsity or have a teacher's pet.
And then again she may decide,
The Police Force is where she'll abide.

LORRIE KOZAK
This quiet, serene lass,
A necessary part of our class,
Will further her knowledge
In a business college.

ALVIN HONG
"I haven't done any homework yet and I don't plan on doing any."
Future plans are indefinite.

SHARON FENTON
Could it be Nursing?
She does not know.
But wherever there is Sharon,
Success will go.

LARRY TROUT
The wittiest member of our clan,
He plans to take commerce
at the U. of S. next year. Then plans to run
General Motors, Pontiac Branch?

DONNA FORREST
Cute and ever so nice is she.
To Varsity Hospital she holds the key.
The nurses and patients will all agree
A very good friend and nurse she'll be

JERRY SCOTT
Here's a lad
that gets good marks.
His ambition is to attend
U. of S. and become a chemical engineer.

MARY AKEHURST
To all, our Mary's been a friend,
And whatever she may do,
In Venezuela or Saskatoon
We are certain she'll come thru'.

BARBARA BENSON
In sports and academic fields,
Our Barbara does excel.
As a teacher of Phys-Ed.,
We know that she'll do well.

BYRNA BURTON
The gay little lass of 4C
May be leaving us we see.
To Augusta Lutheran
College,
For Journalism in New Jersey.

GARNET WELLS
A new addition to our little family. Although quiet and reserved something is brewing under that hair.

JUNE CATTERALL
June will go to Varsity—or—Maybe North Battleford, a nurse to be.
We hope she chooses for the best,
And then for June will come success.

JUDY MESSETT
Your Hermes rep. for your last year.
St. Paul's Hospital calls her near.
She'll try her best to become a nurse
If she doesn't poison the patients first.

GLADYS LEMKE
To our class she's new this year,
And we think she's swell.
In whatever field she may choose,
We know that she'll do well.

DEANNA REMPHRY
All those mules will sure be hoppin'
At Varsity Hospital where Deanna is stoppin'.
This pert little Miss brings joy to all Especially those in the Nutana hall.
