

A vintage advertisement for the Hermes 1973-74 season. The background is a deep, textured blue. In the center is a white line-art illustration of a classic telephone. The receiver is on the left, and the base is on the right. A coiled cord connects them. In the upper right, a white speech bubble contains the text 'HERMES' and '1973-74'. The top left and bottom right corners feature decorative white scrollwork and ribbon-like flourishes.
