

Nancy Hamilton was our Senior Pin, on the awards committee and involved in anything else you'd care to name. Nancy plans to take education but will probably become the Blades' Mascot.

Larry Harley played on our excellent football team and enjoys hockey as well as other sports. Larry will probably ski his way to fame, fortune and the nearest bar.

Curtis Helberg played on both the Jr. and Sr. Football teams and participated in Lit Nite this year. Curt's other interests include skiing, hockey, Joanne and beard-growing.

Grace Hession was our scholar. Her many talents include being an honour roller, breaking her glasses, singing beautifully and tripping on her feet. Baba is a Ukranian dancer and plans to enter university in the fall. (pre-med)

Dave Hill, or D.J., is a real sport: he participates in basketball, soccer, football and golf. Dave plans to go to university next year if he doesn't get run over by the no. 7 bus first.

Merv Hitchings works at the 8th St. Co-op Service Station and enjoys working on his own Mustang. His life long dream is to be the shortest mechanic in Richard Petty's pit crew.

Michael Ho enjoys outdoor activities such as camping, swimming and hunting. He plans to take Mechanical Engineering at university.

Andy Hui was on the honour roll and the Nutana Soccer Team. Andy is also planning his future in Mechanical Engineering at university.

Janice Hulm was a Candy Striper and enjoys bowling and biking. She will probably end up in a peppermint factory (get it? Ha! Ha! Ha! . . . Oh well . . .)

Cathy Ingram has fond memories of Mr. Jorgenson's Art class. She was finished with us at the end of the 1st semester but her future plans have been carefully concealed.

Puck Janes came to us this year from sunny B.C. She plans to go to Hawaii as soon as a cure is found for sunburn; until then she'll content herself with taking Sociology.

Richard Jensen could not be classed as a rowdy. He worked in the school library and was a supervisor at Victoria public school. He is also a great wit if one listens closely enough. Rick plans to take Psychology at the U. of S. after graduating.

Sharofynn Jones was the Managing Editor of the N.C. Eye and was also a member of our Reach for the Top team. She teaches accordion and plans on entering the U. of S. next year.

Leonard King was active in protecting innocent, young, grade 12s from mean, nasty freshies. He stayed in shape through inter-form curling. Len's future is in electronics.

Kelly Klassen is a star 2nd baseman for the Sr. Boys Fastball team. He enjoys all sports and plans to go to University after working for a year.
