

Bob Russell works at the Exhibition Pavilion and does a great deal of work with horses including teaching at the S'toon Pony Club. Bob plans to ride for a year before attending university. Hopefully he'll have a comfortable saddle.

Bill Salloum was our Valedictorian this year. He was also on the honour roll (9-12) and involved in Drama, Lit Nite and most sports, inside or outside of the school. Bill plans to enter Commerce after working in a real live bank for a while.

Ingrid Ruys was involved in track and field, cross country running, basketball, curling, soccer and volleyball. She enjoys bowling, field hockey and working. Ingrid finished up grade 12 in the 1st semester this year.

Kelly Sanderson worked for Saskatchewan Exposition Inc. and the Outdoor Theatre. Kelsey is part of her future plans. The "shy, quiet" type?

Pat Ryan was one of Nutana's great performers in our "Why Not?" Lit Nite. Pat left after the 1st semester and her future plans are unknown to us.

Meighan Scott was known for her involvement in Sr. Volleyball, Jr. Basketball and track. Meig plans to take Interior Design at Mount Royal College in Calgary.

Graham Sharp was a member of the Nutana Blues Football team. That should be enough for anybody. Graham's plans for the future are a secret to us so we'll just say "good luck"!

Daryl Shmon enjoys playing hockey, football, hunting, fishing and water skiing. He is also a grad comm. member and plans to go into Renewable Resources.

Kim Shuba was involved with track, Lit Nite and Drama. She enjoys babysitting and is presently employed at Boston Pizza.

Dave Silver was a member of the Sr. Curling team who also enjoys swimming, skiing and canoeing. Dave worked at the Tire Centre in Humboldt.

Bonnie Smith was Nutana's correspondent this year for our foster child, Juanito, and very active in the World Affairs Club. Bonnie plans to attend the U. of S. next year.

Ron Stienstra was active in sports throughout high-school, interested in cars, women and weekends. Ron was Nutana's rep this year on Sears Teen Council. Does Ron have something against Gerald Schriemer?

Garth Stimpson played Jr. Football and Basketball and Sr. Football this year. He enjoys hockey as well. Garth would like to get a job at Hickson and Morgan as a salesman . . . he's more likely to get a job as a stop light.

Alvena Stone was in the Academic Talents at the U. of S. Her plans include social work.
