

Murray Adams

Tahereh Algei comes from Tehran, the capital of Iran, where she attended Alavi High School. She enjoys mountain climbing and hopes to become a teacher. P.D. Climbing Mount Blackstrap.

Lynn Ashenhurst was on the honour roll, received an Academic Crest and was on the Awards and Grad Committees. She plays tennis and badminton and candy-stripes. She will enter Pre-Med., eventually. P.D. Centerfold for the Dr. Ballard's monthly.

Ken Atkin was involved in curling. He works at the Nutana Bakery and hopes to go to University to study Biology. P.D. Making a lot of dough in his own bakery.

Marty Barbaro was in football, basketball, track and intramural basketball. Marty plans to attend the U. of S. P.D. Third string quarterback for the Plunkett Packers.

Jim Bardwell, our honor roll ISCF president received a 9A Pin and was on the Reach for the Top team. Jim skis and is planning on going into Biology. P.D. Converting his carnivorous plants to vegetarianism.

Susan Beallie contributed her talents to volleyball and was on the honour roll. Susan has plans to work for a year and then go to Kelsey. P.D. Finally outsmarting the cops by removing her windshield wipers.

Shelley Beauregard P.D. Making Jack's a Saskatchewan landmark.

Michael Bietenholz P.D. Making passes at test-tubes.

Linda Bignell played basketball, works at McDonalds and skis. P.D. Being a Volkswagon mechanic.

Dorian Black was in the Honour Roll and in curling, track, cross-country skiing and the band. She hopes to join the Naval Reserves and travel. P.D. Still trying to get along with an English teacher.

Jeff Borstmayer P.D. Starting his own debating team.

Kafia Braah was on the honour roll, received an Academic Crest, was a cheerleader, was on the S.R.C., was involved in Drama, muscular dystrophy and Grad Committee. She plans to attend the U. of S. P.D. President of Weight Watchers.

Diane Buchko was on the honour roll, and NCEye, in Jr. Volleyball, curling, track, the French Circle and cross-country skiing. She takes piano, has a Bronze Cross in swimming and works at Marquis Hall. P.D. Skipping her way to success.

Karen Buick helps out at a Guide Company and was on the Grad Committee this year. She plans to work for a year, then go on to university. P.D. Robbing Walker's Drug Store.

Rhonda-Lee Carpenter's hobbies include sending raccoons to Norway and collecting Norge stamps. Future plans for Rhonda include being a Social Worker. P.D. Being head gossip on the neighborhood grapevine.

Johnson Cheng enjoys hunting, fishing, soccer and gambling and was involved in volleyball and badminton. Future plans for Johnson include Pharmacy at the U. of S. P.D. Being the next Wolfman Jack.

Dolores Clarke works at the Star-Phoenix and enjoys softball, bowling, swimming, bands and music. She plans to go to Kelsey after working for a year. P.D. She and her car will break all records at S.I.R.

