

Vic Fuchs enjoys canoeing and cross-country skiing. P.D. Manufacturing his own war games and losing at them.

Jocelyn Gagne was on the honour roll and the Grad Committee. She enjoys bowling and downhill skiing. P.D. Successor to Rene Julienne, the greatest living stunt driver.

Marc Genuist received a 9-A Pin. He has participated in soccer, intramural curling, the Model U.N., and was Bonny's Gr. 12 SRC rep. He plans to go to the U. of S. P.D. Retiring to the French Riviera.

Al Gilchrist P.D. Getting an empty desk job.

Hart Godden was on the honour roll, received a 9-A pin, was in soccer and Drama and played every instrument in the band—almost. He works at the University Hospital, plays the piano, and plans to go into Medicine.

Gina Grismer

Lewella Hamilton was on the NC Eye, Grad Committee and honour roll, received an Academic Crest. She is working at the University Hospital, and plans to go to business college. P.D. Being the happiest "Lulu."

Anne Hardy wrote the school news for the Star. She took part in school badminton and curling and enjoys canoeing and swimming. She might take Law in University. P.D. Being the only Lawyer not old enough to enter the Bar.

Holly Harris was in track, was a librarian and was on the Tea Committee for Grad. Interests include babysitting, health club, jogging and walking. P.D. Being a fashion designer for Mad Magazine.

Cathy Hess was a cheerleader, a Gr. 12 SRC rep, and on the Grad Committee. Cathy works at Bi-Rite Drugs and enjoys water-skiing and the outdoors. She plans to be a Domestic Engineer. P.D. Having a pom-pom bridal bouquet.

Larry Heuchert P.D. Patron of the Playboy Club.

Connie Hol was in cheerleading (10,11), and on the Award Committee (11, 12). She works part-time at McDonalds and plans to continue her education. P.D. Becoming a hot-dog skier on a mountain of Big Macs.

Allan Horlick played football and basketball, was in track and field and the SYCC, and played tuba in the band. He is going into Food Service Management. P.D. "To punt it or to eat it, that is the question."

Sheryll Howey P.D. Becoming a biology Ph.D.

Greg Hunt was involved in basketball and soccer. He works part-time at Westgate Value Drugs and plans to take Education at the U. of S. P.D. Selling Hunt's tomato ketchup in medicine bottles.

Cheryl Ingram was on Sr. Volleyball, track and the Grad Banquet Committee and was a football cheerleader. She works at "Ingram's on 10th St." and plans to take Phys. Ed. at Kelsey and travel. P.D. Pedalling around the world.

Robert Irvine was on the N.C. Eye, Hermes Reach For the Top, the honour roll and Sr. Boy's Curling. He enjoys piano, nature photography and bowling and is looking forwards to Ophthalmology. P.D. Being a "key" man in the medical profession.

Joel Janow was on the honour roll (9, 11), participated in track and enjoys hockey and Fords. He may take Pharmacy at the U. of S. P.D. The second Howard Cosell.

