

Ron Phillips enjoys bowling and collecting records. Ron's future includes working before continuing his education. P.D. Getting a Phillips adjustable head-set.

Janet Prebushewsky played badminton and curling and was in Hermes, Drama and SMUNOC. Janet works at Simpsons and intends to go into Public Relations or Broadcasting. P.D. Possible future winner of the Holopchi Eating Contest.

Diane Ramey was on the honour roll, received an Academic Crest, and worked in Drama, N.C. Eye, the library and the canteen. She likes roller skating and hopes to take Recreation Technology at Kelsey. P.D. Taking "canteen" technology at Kelsey.

Geoff Reid, our charismatic Senior Watch, played football, was a captain of the Track Team and was on the Sears' Teen Council. He enjoys hockey and plans to go into the field of Personnel. P.D. Watching the Pin.

Karen Reid is a member of the Saskatoon Stock Car Racing Assoc. who hopes to race her own claimer's car; she also plays piano and bowls. P.D. Trying to find a stock car to beat the rest.

Doug Remenda P.D. Getting into the Guinness World Book of Records.

Patricia Rempel

Thom Richards, soccer, track and basketball star, won a Major N Award in 11. He was in Drama, was an M.C. for Lit Nite, was on the Bay Teen Council and the Provincial Soccer Team. He plans to go to the U. of S. P.D. Being the Rosmanko for Bay Day.

Len Robinson P.D. Being a hippie.

Robert Ruys was involved in soccer and track. He referees hockey and soccer and works at a drugstore. He finished school in January and plans to take Renewable Resources at Kelsey. P.D. Ruysing from a Honda to a Cadillac.

Pippa Sargent was involved in Jr. and Sr. Basketball and track. She was on the SRC for two years and the Lit and Grad Committees. She works at McDonalds and plans to take next year off. P.D. Being promoted to Major.

Eva Schacherl was on the honour roll and received a 9A Pin and three Proficiency Awards. Eva was the Hermes Editor, was in Drama, and enjoys ballet and tennis. P.D. Becoming a future wonder woman.

Otto Schremer was involved in Jr. Football, track and basketball. He works at a drugstore and the Large Animal Clinic. He hopes to become a high school art teacher. P.D. Becoming Rachel Cory's art instructor in "Another World."

Larry Scott P.D. Wearing a tuxedo someday.

Rick Sharp P.D. Running a charm school.

Elaine Sheehan was a librarian in 9 and likes swimming and horseback riding. She worked at Shell and after finishing school in January plans to go to Kelsey. P.D. Product tester for Honda.

Ray Sibbald P.D. Waterboy for the Hilltops.

Rick Simpson was in intramural curling. He enjoys swimming and golf and hopes to become an Automotive Technician. P.D. Working at the Bus Depot walking the Greyhounds.