

Jean Chasmar was on the Honor Roll (9-12) and received academic Crests (9, 10). She was on the Jr. and Sr. V'ball teams, Jr. B'ball Track, cross-country, curling, intramural sports, band (9, 10), Awards Committee, NC Eye. She enjoys swimming, alpine and cross-country skiing, cycling, music. Her future plans are undecided. P.D. Resident Amoeba at U of S.

Lynn Chatterbok was on the Honor Roll (10), was on the Sr. V'ball team (10), Jr. B'ball (9), Sr. B'ball (10-12), Track and Field (0, 10) band (9, 10) Hermes (11). Lynn enjoys basket weaving, swimming reading. She plans to attend the Saskatoon Business College. P.D. Being Mickey Mouse.

Dean Clarke was in Junior Football (10), Sr. Football (11, 12), SRC (11). He likes hockey and hunting. He plans to go into Commerce at U of S and eventually become a racecar driver. P.D. Winning the Formula I, but losing it because he has no license.

Dale Coates was on the football team and works at Safeway. He intends to continue working, maybe at Safeway's. P.D. Informing the Football Team that bread is on special this week 4 for a dollar.

Dean Coates played soccer and basketball. His future plans remain undecided as yet. P.D. How should he know?

Joanne Courtney was on the Honor Roll (10, 11). She received an Academic crest (10). She was involved in Basketball (9), Intramural Volleyball, Drama (10-12) and Grad Committee, and Hermes (10, 11) and editor for Gr. 12. She is on the Teen Council at Simpsons-Sears. She plans to go to university and do lots of travelling. P.D. Editing the Sunnyside Nursing Home Yearbook.

Scott Crossman was on the Junior and Senior Football teams and played Freshman Basketball. He likes hockey. He plans to go to university or Kelsey after a year. P.D. Selling BB guns door to door.

Curtis Davis participated in Drama, Football and Track & Field. He enjoys officiating, and his plans for the future include accounting. P.D. Officiating for the Businessmen's Football League.

Rob Degenstein likes skiing, driving and partying. He works at a drug store. His future plans are undecided. P.D. Having his burps registered on the Reichter scale.

Carl deNie was on the soccer team (9-12) and the track team in gr. (9, 10). He enjoys cross country skiing. He plans to travel and maybe go back to school. P.D. Selling Safeway pantihose door to door.

Leslie Dorgan (was involved in Hermes (10,11), section editor in 11, NC Eye 9, Pep Club 11, drama 9-11, Grad Committee 12. Enjoys reading. Future plans is to go to university and travel. P.D. Thinking "R" on the gear shift means race.

Michael Dorotich was in Europe for gr. 11. He was on the Honor Roll (9, 10), Intramural Curling (10). He likes modern and classical music and playing the guitar. Tea and incense are extremely important to his existence. He plans to go into Arts and Science. P.D. President of the Beatles fan club.

Heather Douglas was on the Honor Roll (10, 11) and received an Academic crest (10). She was involved in Hermes advertising and Grad Committee. She enjoys swimming, cross-country skiing, and playing piano. She would like to get into Vet. Medicine. P.D. Entering women's heavyweight wrestling.

Joe Edstrom plans on taking an accounting course at Business College. P.D. Becoming a radio announcer, but getting fired because he talked too much.

Henry Eng

Wayne Ethler

Bonnie Evasluk

Craig Finnestad

See end of grad biographies