

Hilda Flear played volleyball in grade 9 and enjoys interior decorating and sewing. She intends to take a hairdressing course and then go to Kelsey to become a dental assistant. P.D. Being a mechanics "First Lady."

Sandra Fraser was on the Honor Roll in grade 10, and was active in Jr. Volleyball, the Pep Club, Band and the Awards Committee. She likes golfing music, swimming and cross-country skiing. University lurks in her future. P.D. Adding up her golf score honestly.

Lynn Friesen was involved in Hermes and Grad Committee. She babysits, reads, does crafts and likes travelling. After a years holiday, she hopes to go to Kelsey for a hair dressing course. P.D. Forming Lynn's Clip Joint.

Guy Georget worked on the NC Eye. He skis and plays the guitar. He intends to go to the U of S and study Electrical Engineering. P.D. Getting even with Craig.

Sandy Grasdahl is an avid reader and likes wood carving. She plans to further her education at Kelsey. P.D. Giving remedial-writing lessons to Mike Hedlin.

Peggy Greenhough participated in Track and Field (9). A part time job, cross country skiing, piano lessons, and horses occupy her free time. Her future may include working with horses or university. P.D. Swimming her way out of a tequila bottle.

Larry Grise

Gavin Hamilton was on the SRC (10), played Jr. Football and took part in intramurals (9-12). His other activities have included co-chairman for the Grad Committee, Muscular Dystrophy co-chairman, and Lit Night. He enjoys hockey, his work, football, shinny and baseball. Guy plans to go to University, possibly Agriculture. P.D. trying to play football with his strates on.

Wade Hamilton was involved in Jr. and Sr. F'ball, Jr. and Sr. B'ball, track and intramural sports. His outside enjoyments include dances, movies, weekends. He plans to work for a year, go to Hawaii, and then? P.D. unofficial sampler for Labatt's, Carling, O'Keefe, Molson's . . .

Dawn Happy was on the Honor Roll (9, 10) and received a 9A pin 11. She was involved in Jr. and Sr. V'ball, B'ball, and Track and Field. She is employed at the Star-Phoenix and likes dancing and travelling. She plans on becoming an Assistant Vet. P.D. Wirink "with" men (at the Star-Phoenix).

Kathy Hartnett received an Academic Crest in grade 9, participated in Curling, Intramurals, Drama, Pep Club, and Hermes. She enjoys parties, outdoor activities, horses and music. She hopes to work with Renewable Resources at KIAAS. P.D. Trotting to the drugstore.

Sandy Hayes was on the Track Team in grade 9, and a member of Saskatoon Stock Car Racing Association. She likes horseback riding. Her future is undecided. P.D. Riding a horse in a stockcar race.

Mike Hedlin was on the Honor Roll (9, 10). He enjoys horseback riding, tennis, hockey, football, baseball and reading. His future plans include studying Physics at university. P.D. Becoming a secretary of a slime factory.

Dwayne Helburg

Virginia Hession was on the Honor Roll and managed Sr. V'ball (11). She was on the SRC (10, 11), worked on the Lit Council and the NC Eye. Her hobbies include singing, piano playing, cross country skiing and reading. She plans to study law at the U. of S. P.D. Taking up permanent residence at Diefenbaker.

Jo-Anna Hnateshen was on the Honor Roll (9), played Jr. and Sr. B'ball, V'ball and Track. She was involved in cheerleading, NC Eye, French Circle and Grad. Committee. She is employed at the Bay. Her future plans include working, attending University, and travelling. P.D. Manufacturing the first smudge-proof lip gloss.

Sally Hodgins was on the Honor Roll and received a 9-A pin. She was active in Jr. and Sr. V'ball, the Pep Club, and was an Intramural House leader. She works at the Midtown Cinema, likes driving and partying. She hopes to study Commerce at the U. of S. P.D. Being a Go-Go dancer.