

Bob Hosaluk likes hockey, football and any other kinds of sports. He plans on continuing his career as a woodworker or cabinet maker. P.D. Duplicating his small voice.

Dave Hunt played Jr. Basketball, Jr. and Sr. Football, he enjoys football and hockey. Dave plans to get a job after grade 12. P.D. Wearing a jean jacket for the rest of his life.

Colleen Hunter was on the B'ball team, Lit Council and Drama. She works in the Eaton's shoe department, enjoys swimming, water skiing and cross-country skiing. Her future plans include University and entering pre-med. P.D. Poking her patients in all the wrong places.

Rosalee Irvine is a member of the Saskatoon Coalition against Nuclear Development and a member of the Saskatoon Women's Liberation. She intends to go into the College of Arts and Science at the U. of S. Campus. P.D. Keeping her fingers out of light sockets.

Ian Irvine was on the Honor Roll and was on the Newspaper and was a Yearbook photographer. He is involved with amateur radio activities. He plans on going to university. P.D. being the replacement for Jody on "Soap."

Phil Kemmer participated in Sr. football and plays hockey out of school. His future is either undecided or too mysterious to put down in print. P.D. Associate taster with Wade.

Brenda Klebaum managed B'ball (11, 12) was on the N.C. Eye. (9, 10) and Lit Council (11, 12). She deals in shoes at Eatons and enjoys waterskiing, cross country skiing and swimming. She plans to go to university. P.D. Associate taster with Wade and Phil.

Doug Klein works part-time and enjoys working on cars. Presently he is trying to get a car ready for Bridge City Speedway. Doug plans to work for a year and then take an auto mechanics course at Kelsey. P.D. Getting all "tied up" at Eatons.

Lawrence Knezacek

Ron Koenderink was on the Honor Roll (9, 11). He played soccer (10-12), was involved in Sr. Curling, Track and In-tramural Curling. After high school he plans to attend the College of Engineering in Saskatoon. P.D. Changing himself into a computer.

Dorothy Lukkien was involved in Jr. V'ball and B'ball (9), Sr. V'ball and B'ball (10-12), Track and Field, Lit Council 11-12, Awards Committee 12 and Eaton's Teen Council. She's a member of the Saskatoon Track and Field Club. Her hobbies include basket weaving, swimming, horseback riding and coaxing her car to run. P.D. Spiking the water bottle.

Kevin MacNaught played Junior Football in Gr. 10 and was on the SRC Gr. 12. In the MacNaught tradition, Kevin plays hockey for the Olympics. Hockey is a definite yes in his future plans. P.D. Losing more than his teeth.

Tim Mann P.D. Collecting the first Canadian harem.

Terry Mayes P.D. Growing up to be tall enough to look into his brother's eyes.

Sheryl McGunigal danced for Lit Nite (9-12). She enjoys ballet, jazz, tap, highland dancing, teaches Scottish dancing and works part time at Grandma Lee's Bakery. She hopes to open a dance studio of her own and go to different places for further dancing. P.D. Dancing into our hearts

Renee Merz was on the honor roll (9) was involved in Track, NC Eye, Pep Club, French Club, Model UN, senior volleyball manager, and cross country ski club. She works part-time at Fresh Air Experience, enjoys all sports and plans to go into law or business management. P.D. Becoming your basic ski bum.

Bruce Meyers participated in Intermural curling 10-11. He enjoys fishing and plans to work after grade 12. P.D. using a curling rock for bait.

Chris Mykota was on the Honor Roll (9). She was involved with NC Eye (9), Hermes (10, 11), SRC (11, 12), Lit Nite, (11, 12) drama (9-11), and was a cheerleader. She likes skiing. She may go into Journalism. P.D. Getting R-O-W-D-I-E.