

Danny Wilson was on the Honor Roll 9-12. He was involved with Sr. Boys Curling 10-11 and Intramural Curling 9-12. He was on the NC Eye 11-12. He enjoys curling, reading and chasing girls. He plans to go into Commerce or Law. P.D. Graduating from polyester to cotton.

Murray Wilson played Sr. Basketball. He enjoys golf, tennis and driving. He plans to work for a year and possibly go back to school. P.D. Being a pro at Putt & Bounce.

Wanda Zelko played Sr. V'ball 9-12 and was involved in Track and Field 9-12. She was head cheerleader this year and got R-O-W-D-I-E! Wanda enjoys dancing, skiing, horseback-riding, travelling and shopping with her mom. She plans to become an airline stewardess or an interior decorator. P.D. Going home to change her clothes.

Yancy Zelko Doing everything in a Nova Hatchback.

Jo-Anne Parenteau gave her talents to Track and V'ball (9)0 the V'ball team (10) and Lit Nite. She is employed at the Bay and likes water skiing. A trip to Europe and going to Kelsey may be parts of her future. P.D. Hosting a talk show with no guests.

Henry Eng enjoys photography and sports. His future includes going to engineering college. P.D. Being the ringleader of the Chinese Connection.

Wayne Ethier P.D. Knocking himself out from a sniff at his Ether.

Bonnie Evasiuk likes music, parties, and travelling. She hopes to marry a rich farmer. P.D. Being a hostess for the rest of her life.

Craig Finnstad was on the Honor Roll, participated in Intramural Curling, and photographed for the Hermes and NC Eye. He wants to work a year and then enter the U. of S. P.D. Replacement for the "Man from Glad."

