

Larry Bzowy was an active member of the Sr. Basketball, Sr. Football and Track and Field teams. His future plans include playing for the Hilltops, following the Dallas cheerleaders, and shaving. P.D. inventing the first Gillette Track 19.

Mark Chatterbok played Freshie and Jr. Basketball, Jr. Football and Intramural Curling. He is a member of M.O.N.A.'s gorillas and enjoys hockey, parties, water skiing, and going to Emma Lake. P.D. world wide chatter champ.

Jim Chrones was involved with Jr. Football in 10 and Sr. Football in 12, and SRC in 11. He likes hunting and waterskiing and the restaurant business looms in his future. P.D. becoming the A & W root bear.

Joane Clifford P.D. smiling her way through all the cliffs.

Dale Coates played one year of Junior Basketball and Soccer. He works at Safeway and enjoys watching hockey, football, and baseball. His future plans are working at Safeway. P.D. knowing the answer but forgetting it.

Harry Collins - well - B.C., look out for a hitch-hiker. P.D. being a gynecologist.

Violet Crawford was involved with the SRC and was our Football Queen this year. She plans to work a year and then go to Business College for a secretarial course. P.D. running her own beauty salon.

Cheryl Creswell came to us from Aden Bowman. She has taught ballet, jazz, and disco dancing as well as taking classes in ballet and jazz. Cheryl hopes to get an advanced standing in ballet, take an arts course, and to into some aspect of design. P.D. Disco Queen of Alsask.

Deven Cutting worked at Pop's Pizza. He plans to take a course at STI in Moose Jaw. P.D. inventing a formula to cure the 26 oz. flub.

Ray De Goede was involved in Fr. B'Ball, Sr. B'Ball, Soccer for all four years, and Track. He intends to work a year and then return to school for drafting. P.D. Jolly Green Giant.

Don Derkewych P.D. being a rock star.

Dawson Dovel was on the honor roll in 9, 10 and 11, the Intramural Executive Council and the SRC. He played Freshman, Jr. and Sr. Basketball, Football, and was involved in Track. He hopes to go into Commerce. P.D. making it to the NFL Tidy Bowl.

Don Drake likes to work on cars and motorbikes, and enjoys hockey and baseball. He plans to take either a mechanics or an electrical course at Kelsey or STI. P.D. four padded walls and an uncomfortable jacket.

Gary Ethier enjoys listening to music. He intends to work for a year and then go to Kelsey. P.D. a substitution expert.

Bonnie Evasiuk works as the Exhibition Stadium and hobbies include art, biking, swimming and travelling. She plans to go into either art or bookkeeping. P.D. getting lost.

Dave Fairweather played Jr. and Sr. Football and was involved in Track. He likes hockey, basketball, water skiing, parties and being unemployed. His plan is to marry a rich girl and not work. P.D. becoming a brunette.

Michael Finsson was involved in Basketball and Floor Hockey and was a longtime member of M.O.N.A.'s Gorillas. Outside of school he enjoys hockey and football. He plans to be rich and enjoy the good life. P.D. dreaming he ate a marshmallow and waking up to find his pillow gone.

Robert Fischer was involved in most of his classes. He enjoys hiking and canoeing and hopes to study engineering in Victoria. P.D. getting promoted to bag boy after 25 years at O.K. Economy.

