

Hilda Flear was involved in Basketball in 9 and loves sewing and reupholstering cars in her spare time. She will probably work a few years and then go into interior decorating or work on cars full time. P.D. being a Mechanic Girl Wonder.

Jonathon Forrest came in grade 11 from Scotland and was involved in Soccer. Playing the guitar, drawing, and painting occupy his leisure hours and he intends to go into Fine Arts. P.D. taking over the "New Avengers".

Jim Friesen was involved in SMUNA and Soccer, and works part time. He plans to take a course in Renewable Resources. P.D. getting a T.D. in soccer?

Carla Frovarp played Jr. Volleyball in 10 and Intramural Basketball in 11. She was on the SRC in 11 and ring committee. She hopes to go to Business College. P.D. growing potatoes...

Jane Gallagher was on the honor roll all four years, involved herself in Track and Field in 9 and 10 and played Intramural and Senior Curling. Jungle Jane also donated herself to the N.C. Eye, the Hermes, the Pep Club and ISCF. She likes sketching, guitar, bird-watching and skiing. Her plans include going into Biology. P.D. wife of Tarzan.

Shirley Gauthier has woven a mesh of mystery around her future. What's the big secret Gauthier? P.D. hosting the world's longest party.

Mike Gillard enjoys water skiing, winter skiing and races bikes. He came from North Battleford this year to finish gr. 12 and plans to get rich. P.D. finding his own oil mine.

Tony Golf P.D. being "Joe Coor".

Philip Goodeve came to Nutana from Toronto. He played soccer and intends to go to university. P.D. writing Hamlet #2.

Shelley Graves was on the honor roll all years, achieved a 9-A pin in gr. 11 and won the School Proficiency Award in 9, 10 and 11. She was in the N.C. Eye, Drama, Hermes, Lit Council, and the Pep Club. She likes reading, sewing, and plans to go to university and travel. P.D. buying an axe and becoming a brain surgeon.

Christine Grise P.D. jacking up her boots so she can see over the counter.

Mary Ann Hamm came to Nutana from Rosthern Junior College this year and had a summer job at the Financial Building. P.D. marrying Joe Egg.

Diane Hartnett participated in Track, and Intramurals. She loves the outdoors, horses, and parties and Kelsey is in the future for Diane. P.D. joining Sargent Pepper's Lonely "Harts" Club Band.

Heike Heimann was on the honor roll and co-edited the Hermes in gr. 12. She was also involved with the N.C. Eye (10-12). A job at the bay, ballet, jazz, disco, NDC, guitar, skating, and parties occupy her leisure moments. She plans to go to Europe, then go into Architecture. P.D. creating the first 72 hour weekend.

Simon Horlick was on the honor roll in 10-12 and joined Sr. F'ball and M.O.N.A.'s Gorillas. He likes sports, and ROWDIE. He intends to go to California, catch Bob Seger in concert, marry a rich girl and die. P.D. becoming Doctor Universe.

Velma Hurlburt came to us from Twin Lakes where she won an Academic Achievement Award. Her spare time is occupied with woodburning, making plant hangers, beading, and working with deer-hide and rabbit fur.

Jodi Irvine was on the honor roll in all four grades and played Jr. V'ball and Intramurals. She worked at the Main Library and likes swimming and piano. She intends to go into Renewable Resources. P.D. becoming Ms. G.I. Joey.

David Kerr was on the honor roll, Drama 9-12, SMUNA 11-12, Options Canada, soccer and Intramural Curling. He collects comics, works at the Cellar Restaurant, and plans to go into Computer Technology. P.D. leading a one man debating club.

