Hobbies: skiing, biking, guitar, doing coffee, reading & continually looking for antiques. DREAMS: After my well-deserving year off, I hope to obtain my masters in Anthropology and go from there. As long as I get to travel and meet new people, I'll be happy, happy, happy. REALITY: Working at the Bay, asking people, "Is this on your Bay account?" "If you guys want a short meeting - Shut Up!"

CHRISTOPHER A. SCHULZ: SMUNA, Grad fashion show and fighting many urges to go for coffee. DREAMS: All I want to do is marry a rich woman so I never have to work a day in my life. REALITY: I'm entering Hotel/ Restaurant Management in the fall and one day hope to open my own restaurant. "If you really want something you can achieve it only with hard work. Good luck in the future, Grads of '89."

LAURA SKOPIK: SRC Rep (10) Secretary (11, 12), Drama (9-11), Yearbook (9-12), Awards Committee (9-12), Jr V'ball (9), Sr V'ball Manager (11), French Club (10), Grad Committee (12), Fashion Show (12), Slide Show (12), Honor Roll (9-12), Math Contest (11), Hobbies: Using my never ending supply of Post-It Notes, thinking about doing homework, eating Pez. DREAMS: Become the president of 3M, in charge of designing high fashion Post-It Notes, then using my influence to get a bigger autographed picture of K.D. Lang. REALITY: Spend the rest of my life in Arts and Science trying to figure out what I want to do when I grow up. "Life is like an analogy." "The sooner you fall behind, the more time you have to catch up."

WAYNE SPORK: Floor hockey. DREAMS: Own and run my own night club or bar. REALITY: Probably tending bar for someone else. "Finally . . . I'm graduating before I get my first gray hair."

DAVID TEKATCH: Hermes, Drama, Concessions (Assistant Manager). DREAMS: Be rich, go to California. REALITY: Business Management. "Good luck in the future, fellow graduates. Don't worry, be happy."
